MEDIA RELEASE – January 25, 2008

MISSION TO MAYHEM

Making the music of angels, 34-piece Mission choir will take to the stage at Porirua's Festival of the Elements 2008 next week.

The choir members are from churches in south Wellington, many having grown up together. They have worked on previous musical ventures and will once again join together to share their passion.

Mission formed in July 2005 and have played at churches, concert halls and stadiums exalting their message of a saviour and utilising their God-given talents.

They will play after lunch at this year's venue on Elsdon Park and the Mana College Grounds.

Also playing at the event is Wellington Hockey and teams will be training on the purpose-built hockey turf.

The Festival of Elements is an event arranged and managed by the Porirua Community Arts Council (Inc)
PO Box 52 011, PORIRUA CITY

Starting at 10am, Wellington College will train and play a game of hockey to show the audience the speed and precision of the game. Wellington Master's men's and women's team will also show their skills.

The turf will be free from 4pm to 6pm for public to have a go. Sticks and balls will be available for people to have a hit around, learn some of the skill of hockey and find out more about the game.

The full Festival programme is featured on the Festival website at www.elementsfestival.org.nz
